KUHMO MILITARY HISTORY

MILITARY HISTORY SITES AND THE WINTER WAR TOUR

In Kuhmo, the battles of the Winter War lasted throughout the entire conflict, mirroring the war in miniature: intense defensive battles, guerrilla attacks, fierce counterattacks and devastating motti battles. A distinctive feature was the fight against the Red Army's ski troops. In the battles of Kuhmo, the Finnish forces defeated the 54th Mountain Division and famously destroyed Dolin's Ski Brigade.

In Kuhmo, you can explore the region's war history through diverse exhibitions and experience the original battle sites with a knowledgeable guide.
